✓ 12. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON Norman Cornish, of the staff of the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Environment, Energy, & Natural Resources, called with reference to an article in the Washington Post for 26 November on the nuclear explosion of several years ago in the Soviet Union. He said that the Post had mentioned that Ralph Nader's study group "Critical Mass" had received data from the CIA on the explosion under an FOIA request, and he would like to get the same information. Gene Wilson, Information and Privacy Coordinator, confirmed that such a release had been made and said he would send relevant material for transmittal to Cornish.
